To Whom It May Concern:

It is with great enthusiasm that I recommend Nancy Noonan as a speaker and motivator for any group, large or small! I recommend with enthusiasm because that is what Ms. Noonan generates. It was my pleasure to be able to attend her presentation at the recent Maryland Recreation and Parks Association conference. Nancy was not your typical "this is what you should do" speaker. She brought in personal tales, used art to paint a picture of inspiration and positive life applications. Her presentation was captivating with stories and strategies that I took back to my workplace with a plan to use in practical everyday situations.

The evaluations from attendees, from her keynote speech as well as her two educational sessions, are unique in the many kudos she was given. They include "It was inspiring!"; "Excellent! It was really creative to bring art history to bear on our daily lives."; "This session was a pleasant surprise! I actually was inspired!!" I could go on with many comments, but I believe that these three sum up a long list of positive remarks made by members that were present.

Without any hesitation I would recommend Nancy Noonan as a speaker for your next event. I plan to use her in the future, which is the best recommendation I can give.
