

On September 17, 2005, Nancy Noonan was the keynote speaker for our annual conference, "Urology Collage 2005." Nancy presented to the Rocky Mountain Chapter of the Society of Urologic Nurses and Associates. Her presentation, "Lessons from the Masters, Operating at your Own Masterpiece Level," was inspiring, motivating and enthusiastic.

Presenting to a nursing organization can sometimes be overwhelming. Nancy's ability to interact with the audience was excellent. She opened up new avenues of finding one's own creativity, and our utilizing her steps to influence change and achieve more was well received. She presented in a very organized, creative and professional manner. Her knowledge of art and approach to creativity made for a very enjoyable start to our program. SUNA members walked away with tools and strategies to overcome stress, manage and grow with change and use creativity as a step towards success.

Overall Evaluation:

- 3 = Outstanding
- 2 = Satisfactory
- 1 = Unsatisfactory

Expertise of presenter	3
Organization and Time allotted	3
Appropriate teaching strategies	3
Met objectives	3

Attendees stated that Nancy was very positive, her audience contact and interaction were strong assets and the presentation was a "great start for the day." We would welcome Nancy back in the future with enthusiasm!

Carolyn
Carolyn North, RN
Past President, Rocky Mountain Chapter of SUNA.